Constitution OK Slated By Club

The proposed constitution of the Torrance Adult Club will be put up for approval before the membership at a meeting to be held Saturday at 10 a. m. in the Adult Center, 1318 Cravens Ave.
All adults interested in becoming charter members of the club should attend this meeting, according to Harry Van Bellehem, city recreation director.
If the proposed constitution is approved by a majority of the group, it will be sent to James Hall, city attorney, and he will draw up the papers of incorporation. The draft of the constitution was prepared by an Adult Club committee and later approved by the Recreation Commission at a special meeting.

Charley's Corner

Now that you've decided which of your New Year's Resolutions you're going to keep, I would like to pass on a little idea that I got the other day...

According to statistics gathered together by the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, the Queen of your kitchen at home saves you, for her efforts, approximately $60 per hour. Here at Daniels, our cooks get, for their efforts, from $2.00 per hour and up, plus time and one-half for overtime, and plus extra pay for night shifts and holidays. Furthermore, our cooks only work five days per week, with two days off.

Personally, I don't think you can compare the loving efforts of your wife at home with people who are working for money, but I can recommend one sure way to keep her in a congenial, loving mood, and that is to bring her and the family out to eat regularly. Why don't you make tonight your night out? Bring the Queen of your domicile and the kids and EAT WITH CHARLEY, tonight.

If you can't get out tonight or if you don't have a babysitter, why don't you stop by and pick up some of our tasty food to take home with you.

North Torrance Tattler 10-Year-Old Picks Winner, Wins Coke

By ADALINE COETZ
ME 5-6876
I started out the New Year by losing a bet to a ten-year-old Wayne Farris, 3329 W. 175th St., was confident that Michigan State would win over UCLA at the Rose Bowl. His grandmother hadn't picked the wrong team in years and she said: "The only thing Wayne forgot to tell me was that grandmother was the mother of a former griddler for the Chicago Bears, now a Rams scout! So, I'm saving up to buy Wayne a coke!"

The beginning of our New Year was celebrated with gusto all over North Torrance.
Mrs. Charles Ewing, 2103 W. 10th St., invited neighbors in for a shrimp fry around the new fryer Santa Claus brought her.
With the Ewings were the B. M. Cooks, the Robert Bensons, and the Tons Rogers.

At the Roy Dudleys, 17016 Faysmith Ave., 26 friends and the Dudleys' houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bellas, all from Lancaster, toasted auld lang syne while down the street at the Harold Wrights, 17024 Faysmith Ave. party gathered to dance until 3 a.m., when everyone stopped for bacon and eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Selgrist, 16818 Faysmith Ave., entertained 30 neighbors and friends in their Pacific Modern rumpus room in the backyard. A late supper was served.
The J. E. Allison, 17088 Glenburn Ave., spent New Year's Eve with friends in Sun Valley and as the New Year came in, brushed elbows with Dennis O'Keefe and other celebrities at the Bull Pen.

That didn't prove as exciting as running into the Nathan Goodus, who were there also with a party of friends.
In the cozy atmosphere of the Verburgs rumpus room, employees of Verburg Dairy and friends gathered for a gay send-off to the old year and welcome to the new!

Balloons and serpentine were used to decorate as guests were seated at tables set in red and white checked cloths.
Around the ring slinging Auld Lang Syne at twelve were: the Delbert Alford, the Hamilton Blacks, the Walt Bronsons, the Jack Terrys, the Chuck Conlins, the Ed Collinses, the Clint Beedons, the Dave Dyers, the Reese Holbrooks, and Mrs. Verburg.
It will be twins for Bea Vandevort, 2604 W. 175th St. This time! Bea is the mother of three boys already. The Stitch and a Chatter Club presented her with a basket for the baby this week. They considered surprising her but after hearing doctor's orders decided to break the news gently rather than act

Rites Held for Former Resident

Funeral services were held Monday in Long Beach for William F. Totten, former long-time resident of Torrance, who died Thursday at his home in Long Beach.

He was a member of the American Legion Post 170 here, and his two sons, Howard Totten of Long Beach and Lt. Clifford Totten of Pensacola, Fla., are former Herald carrier boys.
He was born in South Dakota and came to California 35 years ago. Besides his sons, survivors are his widow, Mrs. Bertha E. Totten, of Rosemead; a daughter, Mrs. Clara Helton, of Rosemead, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

MICA CONSUMPTION
About 90 per cent of the world's supply of mica is used by the electrical manufacturing industries for insulation purposes.

HAIR GROWTH
The hair of the average person grows about half an inch per month.
The time everyone settles down at the new school, it will be too late for the PTA to carry out any worthwhile project.
In fairness to everyone, Mr. Robison considers it prudent to wait.
